For you my feelings are true the sound of my heart never apart from you discover a place where there's nothing more to face cause the magic of home is true yes, the magic of home is true with you.

First time, I saw your smile and just for a while I felt this can't be real this love is strong, give it a place to belong
cause the magic of home is true
yes, the magic of home is true with you.

A place where our hearts beat as one covered with feelings, emotions so strong the magic of home makes me free it's everything to me.

Go on and let it begin find yourself in two arms that hold you tight belive in me, you are my destiny
cause the magic of home is true
yes, the magic of home is true with you.

it's everything to me.

With you, my day dreams come true no word I can spell can tell my love to you so take my hand, keep it and don't let this end
cause the magic of home is true
yes, the magic of home is true with you.
