The only thing that's got me hesitant is that,
I've been burned in the past but I know now that,
Good hearts prevail and all of this will end up better than the last
Anxiety had the best of me but it no longer has a hold.

And I'm done living in shadows, and letting others
speak my mind
I'll take control of writing my future, composing
moments line by line.

(And what happened?)
(And what happened?)
(And what happened?)
(And what happened?)
And what happened here before, it won't define who I am.
Or where I am going, it's solidified my beliefs and
showed me where to go.
Showed me where to go

Why am I afraid to just follow my dreams? And without second guessing I might just succeed.

I'm done living in shadows, and letting others speak
my mind
moments line by line.

And what happened here before, it won't define who I
am.
Or where I am going, it's solidified my beliefs and
showed me where to go.
And I'm done living in shadows, and letting others
speak my mind
moments line by line.
