So this time I know just what to do
And I might not act like you would want me too
You won't find me hanging round
Cause this girl's going out
Yeah this time I'll paint the town red with my blue heart

Cause my blue heart has cried enough for you
And it's a shame what you have put us through
So don't wonder where I'll be found
I've gone to burn the whole world down
Yeah this time I'll paint the town red with my blue heart

So this time you don't have to say it twice
But I'm sure I paid much more than your asking price
It's a sad and simple waste I gotta drown you from my taste
So this time I'll paint the town red with my blue heart

Red were your roses now spent cause we're through
Red is my lipstick I once wore for you
Blue is my new dress I'm wearing tonight
Blue are your tear drops, it's your turn to cry

So this time you don't have to scream and shout
That old door won't hit my ass on the way out
But remember I love and when you've nothing left to do
You can go and paint the town red with my blue heart

Cause my blue heart has cried enough for you
And it's a shame what you have put us through
So don't wonder where I'll be found
I've gone to burn the whole world down
Yeah this time I'll paint the town red with my blue heart
