"Raining Pianos"

Visit "Raining Pianos" on MotoLyrics.com

It's raining pianos and anvils today
I probably should have stayed in bed
Or should I run away, or should I stand real still
'Til one of 'em hits me in the head?

Sometimes you gonna lose, no matter how you try
You know you gotta laugh or else you gonna cry
So show me all your teeth and hold your head up high
'Cause it could always be a lot worse

I'm running in circles and climbing the walls
Moving along to no advance
I'm mumbling and fumbling and wondering aloud
How long will this carnival ride last?

Sometimes you gonna lose, no matter how you try
You know you gotta laugh or else you gonna cry
So show me all your teeth and hold your head up high
'Cause it could always be a lot worse
