Get out of the middle, babe
Gonna lose your own time
Don't be in the middle, babe
Gotta choose that it's alright

Get out of the middle, babe
Wanna freeze for the rest of your life?
Just give me your hand, child
It's gonna be a fight, fight, fight

[Chorus:]
No one has to know
We can always go anywhere that we want to see
Anything that we want to be

You can't be always gentle, babe
There's gonna be some push and touch
You could have anything you want, babe
But it might be a letter off

Get out of the middle, babe
Though your thinking that might be too much
'Cause beggars can't be choosers, love
It's gonna be a fight, fight, fight, fight

[Chorus] x 2
