You've got that something I've never seen before
I need that something I can't pretend to ignore

I can't get over your love I'll never give up
I can't get over your love I can't get enough

If it should be the last time here is my song
Cause I can't give you more
If it should be the right time please let me know
Cause I can't wait too long oh no

I can't get over your love I'll never give up

I can't get over your love I can't get enough

If it should be the last time here is my song
Cause I can't give you more
If it should be the right time please let me know
Cause I can't wait too long oh no

You got that something I've never seen before
I need that something I can't pretend to ignore

Give me something
Give me something
