You don't know how handsome you are You don't know just how hard you got me wish you could see

Did you ever give me any thought?
It was all wrong from the start You got me, wish you could

Every breath I take whispers your name Everything I say is always the same cuz I'm a cry baby when it comes to you I'ma cry baby, why you?

You can say I'm immature and unwise
But I know how I felt when I looked in your eyes such beauty...now my tragedy

And did you ever give me any thought? how can I be strong when you broke my heart look at me now, wish you could see me now

Every breath I take whispers your name
Everything I say is always the same
I'ma cry baby, why you?

Every breath I take just lets me know That every day I'm just getting old Im a cry baby when it comes to you I'ma cry baby, why you?

All thats left to say now is that, my head is sore All I can feel now is the pain in my core and I was so sure we could've had something more
