One big happy family
Together the rest of our lives
As far as our friends were concerned
Everything seemed right

But that's when she told me
She said it was time to move on
Just something that she kept inside
That told me the thrill was gone

And now I can't believe
I can't believe it's over
Suddenly it's plain to see
She's leaving me and

Even a fool can see
Nothing left between us
I knew all along something was wrong
I did my best to deny it

And now I can't go home
She wants to be alone
So tell anyone who misses me, I'm alright
Even a fool can see

There were times we had nothing
Yet, somehow we laughed through it all
There are moments I'll never forget
And somehow I wouldn't care to recall

And still I can't believe
I can't believe it's over
Suddenly it's plain to see
She doesn't need me

Even a fool can see
I knew all along that something was wrong
But I did my best to deny it

And now I can't go home
She wants to be alone

So tell anyone who misses me, I'm alright
Even a fool can see

Nothing more to talk about
It's over when it's over
In the end you both stop trying
In the end it's, oh, so sad
And you're crying

Still I can't go home
She wants to be alone
So tell anyone who misses me that I'm alright
Even a fool can see

Won't you tell me that I'm alright?
Even a fool like me
Woo, I'm alright
Whoa
