You say, "Not now, it's too late
Now's not the time, it can wait"
You never listen to me

Some things are hard to forget
It's time to do something you might regret
You never listen to me, please listen to me

I think that you must be blind
Haven't you noticed that I'm not around?
Wasting your precious time

All that I want
Knowing that someone will notice me
I can't go on
Knowing that you never bother to listen to me

Losing the will to survive
You never act like you know I'm alive
You never listen to me

All that I want
Knowing that someone remembers me
I just can't go on
Knowing that you never bother to listen to me

All that I want
Knowing that someone will notice me
I can't go on
Knowing you're never a part of me

All that I need
Knowing that someone remembers me
I can't go on
Knowing that you never, never listen to me
