It's easier to laugh
When she's around
You've waited for her love
Too long
You whisper her name
Again
You want to be loved
And belong to her

What do I know
You are gone
What can I do
Hunt you down
What should I hope
Such an empty world
What will I do

Now I'm all alone
I am all alone

Bring out the waterfalls
And take your time
Just lose your temper
A crime is a crime
And be sure
You'll die tonight

Bring out the waterfalls
Bring out the waterfalls

It's easier to sleep
When she's around
You've waited for her love
Too long
You whisper her name
Again
But you want to be loved

Now you're all alone
You are all alone

Bring out the waterfalls

And take your time
Just lose your temper
A crime is a crime
And be sure
You'll die tonight

So bring out the waterfalls
And take your time
Just lose your temper
A crime is a crime
And be sure
You'll die tonight

And why did I care for you
And why did I care for you

Bring out the waterfalls
And take your time
Just lose your temper
Crime is a crime
Be sure
You'll die tonight

Bring out the waterfalls
Until we die
Now is the time
Be sure
You will die tonight

And I almost wrote this song
For you
