[Verse]

Have you ever been locked in a spaceship?
Lost in the sky
Flying high above highways
Still trapped in the sky

I know the meaning of success
Whoa, but you gotta believe
Evil has a way of showing its fine face
Still you gotta believe

Time has a way of standing still for you
Only to go up to fall down

[Verse]

Have you ever been locked in a spaceship?
And lost in your lies
Flying high above the highways
Still trapped in the skies

I know the meaning of success
Oh, but you got to believe
Evil has a way of showing its face
Oh, but you got to believe

[Guitar Solo]

So, you fly into the darkness
Using the stars for your lights
And you finally found your planet
Time to set things right

[Verse]

Have you ever been locked in a spaceship?
And trapped in a lie
But the beauty is the truth
You can look in your eyes

(Monkey noise) Achk

(Jam Out)
