How many days could
It take your life to finally start, now
Before you get the sign to go
Well, get up on your feet and just work the plough
You will always regret if you don't do it now
Maybe you can do something
You didn't even know

So don't wait for the world, love
To be pushing you down now
You know that this chance it may, just slip away
Don't wait for the world, love
Cause they've got their feet up
Don't ever let them take your words to say
No, don't leave it to another day

And if you just wait
For somebody who will come and try to save, you
Nothing will ever get done
Maybe it feels like something that you're not up to
But baby, well I think it's all up to you Don't let it be something
You've never begun

So don't wait for the world, love
To be pushing you down now
You know that this chance it may, just slip away
Don't wait for the world, love
Cause they've got their feet up
Don't ever let them take your words to say
No, don't leave it to another day

You're all tied to your seat and why
Do you hold on to nothing when you need the inside out
I would really hate to see you trying to take the wrong way
And you will never ever get to that other place
If you always just allows yourself to waste your days away
Don't be pushed around by things you can't explain

So don't wait for the world, love
To be pushing you down now
You know that this chance it may, just slip away
Don't wait for the world, love
Cause they've got their feet up
Don't ever let them take your words to say
No, don't leave it to another day

No don't leave it to another day
No don't leave it, no don't leave it, no don't leave it to another day
To another day, to another day, to another day, to
another day,
To another day, to another day, to another day, to
another day,
Please don't leave it
