The high priest came to turn the wheels of time
Enchanted minds, they drank the poisoned wine
Trapped inside the labyrinth of lies
Hypnotized by gods who reigned their lives

There it comes, the blackened horizon
Osiris, Bringer of Fate
Here it comes, the blackened horizon
Cryptic prophecy, their seeds of hate

Children of the Nile
Demonized to live forever
Hail to Isis
The immortal kingdom
Children of the Nile
Demonized to live forever
Hail to Isis
Wheel of their hypocrisy

The tomb of life was opened for their king
To the other side, the victims followed him
In the night before he kissed the hand of death
The river turned red in the night of dead

There it comes, the blackened horizon
Osiris, Bringer of Fate
Here it comes, the blackened horizon
Cryptic prophecy, their seeds of hate

Children of the Nile
Demonized to live forever
Hail to Isis
The immortal kingdom
Children of the Nile
Demonized forever
