Here it comes, you better use it
Your gonna need her when you least expect it.
Money runs, what do you spend it on.
You are too busy just to take what you need.
This heart could heal, if you had the courage just to say what you feel.

The mother tongue. You're gonna come, into the fold where you all feel Good.
Did you want advice for love and life, oh this was we knew.
We visit here but once my love now, well what you gonna do?

Time here, I better use it.
I think of nothing as I'm spinning on an axis.
In place. Do you dedicate. Oh my mood will always turn.
And sweeter skin. There's never been, why I just made you out of my Subconscious.

Mother tongue. You're gonna come into the fold where we all feel good.
Did you want advice for love and life, oh this was we
knew.
We visit here but once my love, no what are you gonna do?

Here it comes, you better use it.
Your gonna need her when you least expect it. Money runs, what do you spend It on.
You are too busy just to take what you need.
This heart could heal, if you had courage just to say
what you feel.

The mother tongue. You're gonna come, into the fold
where we all feel good.
Did you want advice for love and life, oh this was we knew.

We visit here but once my love now, well what you gonna do?
