Verse:

Wandering through the valley of dreams
Voices in my head
Mirror of undying sorrow
Take my pain away
You promised salvation
But you disappointed me once more

Bridge:

The season of childhood is over
The man is beating his fear

Chorus:

The past is over, don't look back now
Together we live our dreams
Prepared for changes, taking chances
The innocent victim became a man

Verse:

Wandering through the valley of tears
Yearning for revenge
Opening the gates to madness
Paralysed by fear
Surrounded by weakness
On the edge of sanity I wait

Bridge:

The season of childhood is over...

Chorus:

The past is over, don't look back now
Together we live our dreams
Prepared for changes, taking chances
The innocent victim became a man
The future is in my hands
A step into the light
