Neptune is my king again
His song, in the sea

You're not gonna loosen me are you?
You tie me to your love again
As long as there's ever now rescue
I need to bring you back again
You say you are weary sometimes
Now I feel more alive
You cannot be loosening me baby
I only wanted this much

Take this hand only once
Yeah I will try to be as pure as you
And make this stand only for one
Yeah I will try to be as pure as you

I tasted the salt on you

And now I have a tongue tattoo
I think of ways around me oh
Imagine good anyhow
Now please don't loosen me baby
You tie me to your lovemaking
And now I feel overblown
I need your fixing bad

Take this hand only once
Yeah I will try to be as pure as you
And make this stand only for one
Oh I will try to be as pure as you

Neptune is my king again
His song, in the sea
Standing in the room, so elegant
He tied me to your love
