Oceans of madness calling
Divinity's - lost and fading
I will fight - for my place in this cold world
Memories of seduction
A mirror of false intentions
Broken dreams, falling into a black hole

Walking on glass - destiny's son
I can feel the pain
Beautiful dreams - confusing my mind
I can see it

I can see the sign - staring into morphia's eyes
I can see the sign - mourning is the blasphemy's price

Cruelty's sun is rising
High above all the graves
I am in rage - tasting the fear in the end
Conception of unbelieving
A lifetime in self - destruction
I am weak, this is my path

Mirror of false intentions
Broken dreams - falling into a black hole

Millions of voices in my mind
Millions of sorrows make me blind
