Angel's sons, fall from grace
Celebrate their sins
Rebel's reign, in the sky
Spread their wings tonight

This is the time, when the angels are falling
They are the victims of their greed
This is the place, where justice is dying
Kingdom of heaven is lost
(all is lost)

Have you ever seen - the angel's assassination?
Have you ever seen - the truth in their eyes?
Have you ever seen - the fire was burning higher?
Have you ever seen - the flames in their eyes?

Flaming tongues, evil minds
Fall into decay

Have you ever seen - the angel's assassination?
Have you ever seen - the truth in their eyes?
Have you ever seen - the fire was burning higher?
Have you ever seen - the flames in their eyes?

Grief of god, satans birth
Eternal war begins
This is the time, when the angels are craving
They are the victims of greed

Have you ever seen - the angel's assassination?
Have you ever seen - the truth in their eyes?
Have you ever seen - the fire was burning higher?
Have you ever seen - the flames in their eyes?
Have you ever seen?
Have you ever dream?
Have you ever seen?
Wouldn't you agree?
(With their lies)
