If you could go back in time,
When I was yours and you were mine,
Would you change a single thing,
Or let things play out as they did?

You don't know, you don't know
You don't know how this will end
'Cause we can't buy what the future sells
Or trade on what the past has dealt

They we grow as time goes by
I always thought that was a lie
'Cause I ain't learned a single thing
I keep repeating everything

And I don't know, I don't know
I don't know how this will end
'Cause we can't buy what the future sells
Or trade on what the past has dealt

I'm taking more pills than advice
I feel like shit, but look alright
And I ain't heard what you've been saying
But at least I killed the pain

And I don't know, I don't know
I don't know how this will end
'Cause we can't buy what the future sells
Or trade on what the past has dealt

Maybe one day we'll break through
And we can start it up brand new
But I don't know how this will end
All I know is that it will

And I don't know, I don't know
I don't know how this will end
'Cause we can't buy what the future sells
Or trade on what the past has dealt

No, I don't know, I don't know
I don't know how this will end
'Cause we can't buy what the future sells
Or trade on what the past has dealt

No, we can't buy what the future sells

Or trade on what the past has dealt
