Let go...

Only time will tell where we take it poisoning myself to watch her fake it 97 lies taking its toll
down from the top now
take your time lets go

I still remember the times when we were young
(don't stop come a little closer)
I still remember two hearts were better than one
(don't stop come a little closer)

So stop don't turn around its hot don't go

Starting at the end innocence in stereo candy covered kisses making my lips glow 97 Lies what we don't know..
down from the top now
take your time lets go

(don't stop come a little closer)
I still remember two hearts were better than one
(don't stop come a little closer)

So stop don't turn around its hot don't go

Sometimes we don't know just how to let go from you and me

I still remember the times when we were young
(don't stop come a little closer)
I still remember two hearts were better than one
(don't stop come a little closer)

I still remember the times when we were young

Sometimes we don't know just how to let go
