I've done you wrong so many nights before, can I still
Say I'm sorry
I blame myself for all the love has gone, there's a
Part of me that's empty

That was you who saved me then
(Darkened by the photograph)
But you're gone and I pretend
(Beneath the red light)

Dancing with strangers, dancing with strangers all
Night
Dancing with strangers made me the stranger this time

It's too late to change

I dream about the love I used to know, can you say
You're sorry
Come lie with me and you can be my love, without you
Sunday is missing

Was that you who spoke to me
(Darkened by the photograph)
In a dream where everything
(Through the twilight)

Dancing with strangers, dancing with strangers all
Night
Dancing with strangers made me the stranger this time

Love is intoxicating, It's too late to change

So come on, don't let go, of the words that you know, I
Can feel you there, so come on, turn the lights out...

Dancing with strangers, dancing with strangers all
Night
Dancing with strangers made me the stranger this time

Say that our love lasts forever tonight
