Would you like to come to dinner tonight?
I'm feeling some lonely tonight.
Like last year, you and me again tonight,
Did your mind clear up all kind of souvenirs?

I'll pretend not to care that you denied
I'll pretend not to care, you stroke me again;
I should have known it,
I should have remembered it;
Maybe do you need this?
I won't give you satisfaction.

All I see is your pride and selfishness,
And I can't stand you anymore;
Do you feel really stronger
Now that you have made me suffer?

Steve and Jane didn't have much to say
To each other,
Filling their time with never-ending quarrels;
While Jane, after two years
Hasn't given up crying,
Steve still goes on
Arguing with his new girl-friend.

Would you like to come to dinner tonight?
I'm feeling some lonely tonight.
Like last year, you and me again tonight,
Like last year...

Come on Jane! Don't leave me alone tonight,
And the story is still going on...
Come on Jane! Don't leave me alone...
