Every boy who has a sweetheart Has a pet name for his girl

Some like a name like Ruby And others like a name like Pearl

But my sweetheart is so beautiful No pet name can i find

So I thought the matter over And ive made up my mind

Well i would love to call you rose dear, but roses fade away roses fade when winter time is near

say id love to call you daisy but daisys always tell what sweethearts like to whisper in your ear

say id love to call you honey but honey runs away

i much prefer a name like clinging vine

and if i call you buttercup the dandelions might eat you up so ill buy a ring and change your name to mine yes id love to call you rose dear but rooooooooooooooses fade away

say id love to call you honey
but honey runs away

and if i call you buttercup then those "tater" bugs might eat you up so ill buy a ring and change your name to mine
