There's a bump in the basement There's a knocking on the wall In the pumping of the pistons I swear I heard you call

There's a bump in the basement There's a hole in the floor There's a guard in the garden Locking up the door

There's a rumble in the floorboards No shutting out the sound And the workers down below me Digging underground

Feel the building all around me Like a wrap of armoured skin But the more we are protected The more we're trapped within

Tell it like it is
Till there's no misunderstanding
When you strip it right back
Man feed machine
Machine feed man

Tell it like it is (And on this land, we cast our fortune) Till there's no misunderstanding (And on this ground, we make our home)
You make up what you like
Man feed machine
Machine feed man
