so i had a little brunch, lunch

had a few cocktails?

everything, everything
you know

yeah

no not today cause they were a little green by georgetown so we didnt risk it you have to put them in the oven to ripen and then when you want the pomegranates and all that other stuff that we bought presidiums you have to put bananas by your vegetables for your fruits to ripen cause theres a gas that comes off goes off? it explodes?

goes off the bananas but it actually speeds the ripening process so you know you dont know produce well, the life cycle of a banana, yeah i mean you know, you can um get high off the skins, did you ever try that?

really? you smoke the skins?

yeah, i think my brother tried that, no, im kidding, i never smoked the skins before no no, it wasnt him but it still the uh, what you have to do is you there is a oil in the skins or something that if you burn it

no

you know what that was?

you know that banana skins are poisonous?

yeah, might be

you know why?
cause the tarantulas

tarantulas?

they do, the tarantulas

from mexico?

dude dont you guys read national geographic around here?

yeah, i used to see the nice pictures of naked black women uganda, you got it so anyway, um i had a uganda party over the other day they, still dont know how to put their clothes on they dont even have zippers nowadays whos that? the tarantulas?

no, they use banana skins so anyway, uh theyre slippery, you know so dont ever leave banana peels out because you could slide, like in the air, double toe loop i just watched ice skating, you guys are psychotic you have like, no idea whats going on in reality

i have no clue whats going on in ice skating you do too

ice skating?

you have to go home you know, all the mexicans, puerto ricans, blacks, everybody out on the streets right now, i had to go through the heart of little mexico, little puerto rico, little honduras, everything today howd you like it?

you ruled all over the puerto ricans and mexicans?

everybody

thats a nice thing

you know i put in unintelligible tape, you want to hear it?

i dont have it home

you dont have it?

my my my its in my jacket the whole time, ill go get it sorry, its in the car, cause i went to see if it would work and it didnt cause my how do i fix my you went to the car that quick?

how do i fix my cassette player in the car, thats probably why i didnt mention it, cause thats really important

are you in the car right now?

oh. no.

cell phone?
got the hose in the window?

later?

how do i fix it, do i get tape cleaner or something?

youre drinking tape cleaner?

well put this in, see what this is.. everything i own is really good thats why unintelligible you rule, everything that you own is great oh this is live, its fun too, no, its the smashing pumpkins good
