I wrote the words to this song on the back of a photograph Behind your back it goes a little something like this is way to big to miss I got a letter in the mail the sender failed to let me know Where it came from Opened it up and sure enough there we were, arm in arm again

I know it's small but my last calls been called half an hour ago
I know it's late but do you think you could at least fix it for me
Then I'll go, I'll go alone I swear, I won't tell a soul I'll drink this beer and write in fear of a song everybody hates

Armageddon, let the light in before we say goodbye Give us something to believe in Armageddon, we're not begging for too much, I don't think Need a goodbye kiss before we sink

we sink, we sink

Armageddon, let the light in before we say goodbye

Give us something to believe in
think
Need one last salute before we sink
