It's a girl in here, not as sweet as you
It's a guy like me, some bad tattoos
An empty bar filling up with smoke
And I cry in the ashes, I'm 3 days old

So please don't say
You wont be going out today
'Cause anywhere I go, wont be anything
If you're not hanging around

It's the blackest cloud and it opens up
When I walk outside and I'm all alone
An empty cell, the furnace chokes
When I walk through the door of broken home

So please don't say you wont be going out today
'Cause anywhere I go, wont be anything
If your not hanging around
'Cause anywhere I go, wont be anything
If you're not hanging around

Please don't say you wont
Please don't say you wont

'Cause anywhere I go, wont be anything
If you're not hanging around
'Cause anywhere I go, wont be anything
If you're not hanging around
