So where'd you go?
How was your vacation home?
Well, obviously you were busy, too busy for me
So this is how you leave me?

I'm broken hearted on the floor
My tears seep through the crack under my door
Where I am locked in, shut down
I'm so tired of picking myself up off the ground

So Happy Valentine's Day
I hope the sun's out in New York
I hope he bought you roses
I hope he bought you roses

So Happy Valentine's Day
I hope the sun's out in New York
I hope he bought you roses
I hope he bought you roses
