take a look and see i painted you a picture its black and white except the bloods a little richer down in the corner where i gave it my signature and then i tired of it, this ones for the winter check it out you see its just a big disaster i dedicated to the fact that its so hard for you to dream a million heartbeats all around you make it hard to sleep does it help your freezing in your bed, your blankets on and up all you want is someone there and all you say is so why love love, kiss kiss love love love, you're making me sick i wish you'd just stop showing off for the rest of us and no one wants to love they're tired enough of trying to drink in all the winter

all alone
love love, kiss kiss
love love love

well do you find you like to fall in love with people that you're never gonna meet its easier than breaking up and crying in the street do you curse the happy couple? do you cringe at wedding bells?
do you drink up all the punch while you wish them all to hell?

[Love, Love, Kiss, Kiss Lyrics on ]

i wish you'd just stop showing off for the rest of us
and no one wants to love
they're tired enough of trying to drink in all the winter
all alone

you cant escape this fatal case of (?) its in your face, and every face you go, stalking you no (?) we say we just cant go on but you felt this way all along

and no one wants to love
they're tired enough of trying to drink in all the winter
all alone
love love love
