got the call, got the call just a couple of days ago that they took, they went and took one half of your soul there we were, nearly 1000 miles away when we heard could hear your tears falling clear as day we just wished you were okay there are times, times you'll never forget in your heart, in your heart you will always live free of regret because a love, a love like this never dies it just grows grows and it strengthens over time grows stronger with the years of our lives i was wrong when i said things never work out right i was wrong to believe that theres no meaning to this life
it's just taken a couple of years shedding my own tears to be able to wholeheartedly say to you you'll never be alone we'll never be alone
