Sad memories the gathering rain brings I loved her but I'll never see her face again Clouds raise their heads in the morning the way I once walked on by But now she's gone and I'll never raise my face again raise my face again

White horses dragged my lover from me she didnt drown my sorrow with the rain with the rai-ai-ain
x2

My friends try to lift me they understand how I'm feeling but the truth holds me down she came and went with the rain (i watched her walk into the rain x2)
White horses dragged my lover from me
she didnt drown my sorrow with the rain
with the rai-ai-ain
x2

Now always the storms come...
Raindrops run down my windows All that's left is her picture but someday it to will wash away...
wash away...
I watched her walk away, in the rain

White horses dragged my lover from me
she didnt drown my sorrow with the rain
with the rai-ai-ain
x2

with the raaaaain
