When I see all those poxy posy mods, I want to beat up
all the silly sods.

When I see them walking down the street, it makes me
puke 'cos they look so neat.

Beat up the mods, beat up the mods ..

I hate Ian Page 'cos he's such a fucking tit, I wanna rearrange his face with a building brick.

He wouldn't fight back though I wouldn't care, he'd be afraid to spoil his shit mohair.

Mums and dads like 'cos they look so smart, but they're just prats and they look the part.

They wear shit parkas even when it's hot, they've got less brain cells than a lump of snot.
