If I,
Can't love you,
'Til the day I die,
Then baby, oh baby,
What good am I?

If I can't reach up,
And know that you'll be there,
Then this whole world,
Ain't spinnin' anywhere.

'Cause there's no livin'
Without your lovin'.
Without the magic of your tender touch.

There's no livin',
Without your lovin'.
Baby,
I love you too much.

And I,
Wouldn't want,
To live my life through,
Knowin',
In my heart,
I never will have you.

If I can't hold you,
And kiss you,
Anymore,
Then what on Earth,
Am I livin' for?

'Cause there's no livin',
Without your lovin'.
Without the magic of your tender touch.

There's no livin',
Without your lovin'.
Baby,
I love you too much.

If I can't hold you,
And kiss you,
Anymore,
Then what on Earth,
Am I livin' for?

'Cause there's no livin',
Without your lovin'.
Without the magic of your tender touch.

There's no livin',
Without your lovin'.
Baby,
I love you too much.

There's no livin',
Without your lovin'.
Without the magic of your tender touch.

There's no livin',
Without your lovin'.
Baby,
I love you too much.
