"In Your Arms"

Visit "In Your Arms" on MotoLyrics.com

Is it a cold cold mornin
Are you longing for more Always waiting for someone to see you

Are you alone on this mountain, gazing towards the horizon always waiting for something more

What if I have faith in you What if I adore you What if I told you,
that I'm here,
longing for you (trying to reach you)

Are you all alone,
gazing towards the horizon
hoping for more

Are you afraid to break free always waiting for something to come along for something more
