"Leaving Earth"

I'm truly sorry if I am
Losing my grip
If I'm fading away
Watching the stars as I set sail
I'm truly sorry if I was
A disappointment to you
But I cannot stay
Watching the stars
Longing to set sail
I know that I will miss you
But it's time for me to leave
The Arcadia is calling my name

I am drifting away
This is my goodbye
No need for me to stay
This is my way out

I'm truly sorry if I am
Losing my grip
If I'm fading away
Watching the stars as I set sail
I know that I will miss you
But it's time for me to leave
The Arcadia is calling my name
