"Run To You"

Visit "Run To You" on MotoLyrics.com

I don't know why it feels right
A burst of emotions made me realize
That I should carry on
More graceful than the stars above
You have touched my very soul
Under the clear blue sky

I will run as fast as I can
Far away from all of this
I've been waiting for ages
To hear the sound of your voice

I will try as hard as I can
To get away from all of this
I need to see you
And I'm running out of time

My heart cries out for mercy
A burst of emotions made me realize
That I should try harder
And as the scenery pass by
I realize that I'm losing time
Under the clear blue sky
