One more breath, one more try to get up
I don't know how long I've been here
I can't tell if my eyes are closed or open
I can't feel if I'm warm or cold

The only thing I'm sure of
Is that I got a mission
The only thing I know for sure
Is that I'm waiting here for you

Where the trees have no leaf
The water has turned black
I'll be waiting there, in the Garden of Grief
Where the sky has no sun
Only ashes remain
I'll be waiting there, in the Garden of Grief

The minutes pass, I can feel you getting closer
Calling out your name, to show you where I am
Here is where you'll feel no pain
You won't remember why you came
No one can hurt you here, 'cause I'll take care of you

The only thing I'm sure of
Is that I got a mission
The only thing I know for sure
Is that I'm waiting here for you

Where the trees have no leaf
The water has turned black
I'll be waiting there, in the Garden of Grief
Where the sky has no sun
Only ashes remain
I'll be waiting there, in the Garden of Grief
