"Just A Little Sin"

I've got just a little sin, Lord, just a little one,
It'll never hurt anyone!
Oh, won't You overlook it, now, won't You Lord?
It's just a little tiny one!

I know my sin nailed You to the Cross
And caused You to suffer and die;
And I know it grieves Your Holy Spirit right now,
But can't You just let one little sin slip by?
Don't bother Yourself, Lord, and neither will I!
I'll just hide it in some dark corner of my heart.
Nobody else knows, Lord, just You and I;
Why should it keep us apart?
