Holding fast to the only thing
That can bring us life, that can give us wings to fly...
Making sure that the spirit's true,
understanding comes to you and I!

We will journey ever higher, ever seeking His desire;
And come what may, we will not fear!
Our souls filled with fire,
His love will lift us higher:
A prayer away, He is so near!

So take hold of the only One who can change your whole life
in one second... Can you see Him?
Don't let go and don't you ever stop,
and we can soar above the mountaintops
in true freedom!
Why be stuck upon the ground,
with all the weights that hold us down?
Can a dream come true if we believe?
And we won't die anymore;
that's what He died for,
and rose again to set us free...
Eternally!

So set your sights on things above,
keep yourself in the love of the Father;
Looking not on the things we see,
Welcome to Reality!
