"Die, Die, Die"

Look into my eyes, can these eyes lie
You're standing at the end of the line
I'm tellin' you goodbye, well, you know the reason why
There's no point in tryin' to run

You're gonna die, die, die
Don't ask why
No use acting like a child and cry
You're gonna die

It's all old news, no use to get the blues
We all come to this point in our lives
In the end you lose, 'cause that's the way I choose
And now comes your time to die
