casual girl. everything is matter of fact to you. casual girl. i know its after the fact for me. i dont know where youve been but you give in too easily. and it hurts me so to know your a casual girl. i thought that you were trying to please me, now i know that you were just easy. what am i supposed to do? im already in love with you and its too late to put you down. casual girl. everything is a matter of fact to you. casual girl. everything is after the fact for me. i dont know what youve done. dont think im just out for fun. because i dont feel that way about you. casual girl i really love you. usual, casual, typical, actual girl.
