i have been in love before. have you? we stand now before a door of love. hand in hand, face to face. lips to lips, in warm embrace. hand in hand, face to face. lips to lips, in warm embrace. should we go in? and throw caution to the wind? is it love or lust? need we be concerned with trusting each other if we are only to be lovers? i have heard a thing or two about you and i feel that we should wait awhile. hand in hand, face to face. lips to lips, in warm embrace. hand in hand, face to face. lips to lips, in warm embrace. we cant bas love on what we feel tonight. it wouldnt be right. to carry on this way would gaurantee that we would not survive. i have been in love before. have you? we stand now before a door of love. hand in hand, face to face. lips to lips, in warm embrace. hand in hand, face to face. lips to lips, in warm embrace. should we go in and throw caution to the wind? is it love or lust? need we be concerned with trusting each other if we are only to be lovers.
