

All "Honey Peeps"

Visit "Honey Peeps" on MotoLyrics.com

i woke up to see somebody staring at me through the window i knew it was you that's how we first met i was watching you undress i winked at you and you threw a shoe called the police honey please don't do this to me i wanna ask you out for saturday night if you bail me out i know we can work it out i picked you cause i knew that it felt right you dropped the charges then you drove me home that's when i knew we were alone i did my best to thank you gave me your name and number and said we have a date to pick you up and don't be late angeline 264-5783 the big house on the corner that looks like a tangerine great big windows easy to see in i took my chance and i moved in i turned on all my charm i put my arms around you explained the way i met you how i never meant to hurt you you said you shouldn't be staring at me like that but i couldn't turn down my first date since i moved to town we went out for a year one day her smile turned to tears said we can't go on i've met somebody new the same way i met you yeah and he nailed me with his charm honey please don't do this to me stick around i think that we can work it out maybe what we had was never meant to last i still look in your window when i pass your house maybe what we had was never meant to last i still look in your window when i pass your house

Visit All page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.