whatever happened to all my plans all the fun i was supposed to have where did i go wrong it passed me by i let it slip away by working all the time burning out my mind wasting precious life it's still summer somewhere and i think i better go there (anywhere but here) this could be my last chance for me to change my life it's still summer somewhere and i really need to go there it's still summer somewhere and i'll get there i let love walk out the door cause i don't know how to have any fun i pushed love out the door cause i'm never at ease with anyone no screen no phone no fax work will wait till i get back i'm gone so long i'm never coming back never going back it's still summer
go there it's still summer somewhere and i'll get there it's gone for good not only until next year there will be no next year if i don't get out of here it's still summer
go there it's still summer somewhere (anywhere but here) still summer somewhere (anywhere but here) it's still summer somewhere (any way) and i'll get there
