pack up all your things, i'll help, you'll leave today we said we'd do it, and today is the day don't care how we tried, it's gone a thousand times we'll make it through this, there's no other way if i'm the first and i'm the only, promess me i'll never be lonely but only for as long as we believe and we broke it all and now there's nothing left we placed all our faith in sex of my little world of make believe messed up everything, all set to wash away but maybe i'm not ready to grow up today and now i'm through living as a criminal no time for sentiment, just time to pay the rent but only for as long as we believe we placed all our faith in sex if i'm the first and i'm the only, promess me i'll never be lonely and we broke it all and now there's nothing left of my little world of make believe i'm not ready to be thirty-two and can't i just stay a while inside with you? far from the compromise and shifty eyes and dirt i'm not ready to be thirty-two but i can't stay forever young with you i can't live my life like i'm in sixth grade slam the door in my mixed up ways here's all your pictures and here's most of mine in my little world of make believe guess that's everything, i'll watch you drive away you watched me grind away and now i watch you fade away but loved you more than this, i lived for your sweet kiss we placed all our faith in sex and we broke it all and now there's nothing left of my little world of make believe my little world of make believe let me come back to my world of make believe (my little world of make believe) my little world of make believe let me come back to my world of make believe (never go back to my world of make believe) (my little world of make believe) my little world of make believe... (never go back...)
