From the world to the dreaming fields of light, yeah from the soaking mud
Gonna fly up to the sky to the scarlet thing in you
On the red wings I will sail at night to the scarlet thing in you
On a long lost ocean wave of light, submerged and unafraid

I saw you, you were one
I saw you, you were one
I saw you, you were one
I saw you, you were one

No way back to recall the way, 'cause I threw out all the why's
Spinning with the spider in the cave, found the scarlet thing in you
Where the birds can't reach, no words can teach Spinning in the cave for the scarlet thing in you

I saw you
You saw me

I saw you, you were one
I saw you, you were one
I saw you, you were one
I saw you, you were one

Everything's all right
Everything's all right
Everything's all right
Everything's all right

Spinning in the cave for the scarlet thing in you
Spinning in the cave for the scarlet thing in you
Spinning in the cave for the scarlet thing in you
Spinning in the cave for the scarlet thing in you
