Beauty of You

You lye, lips sealed, nothing left unsaid can ever do us wrong I stand, so close, enough to see your dreams in the beauty of you

You lye, eyes closed, nothing left unseen could ever do us harm I stand, so close, enough to see your dreams in the beauty of you

And my wish, so strongâ€¦ so willing to be all you want me to beâ€¦
me to beâ€¦

You lye, body still, nothing left undone can ever ever cause us pain Sleep away from here to where everything is safe to the beauty of you
