time to confess, never was who you thought i was, life got to big, and these lies became a burden (i couldn't lift)
oh god why?
my life is a lie,
deep inside, no one can see (the real me)
it's the way i feel inside,
it's the way i run and hide,
i'm drowning and i cannot breathe,
these lies are consuming me, my life's a disguise, i put on when i tell my lies,
i put on my shades
so you cant see the real (me inside) got to fit in, or everyone will see, wish i could be how you see me

it's the way i feel inside,
it's the way i run and hide,
i'm downing and i cannot breathe,
these lies are consuming me,

all i need is time.....
time to find myself,
all i need is time.....
time to shed these lies,
all i need is time.....
time to find my way home,
all i need is time.....
to stop feeling alone,
all i need is time.....
i feel so alone,
all i need is time....
