I don't see differences in you and me
Except for the occasional harsh word
Step out on the stage
We got colors
We got shapes
All you really need is your brother, don't you, don't you

I don't know where it is I'm gonna go
Is it heaven
If it is come take me now
Leave it where you are
We are out here if you are
We are taking sticks and stones
And smashing our own cars

Now where did you see that
Do you really believe that
Everything is changing whether or not you see it
Something's gotta change
Be it face or be it name

Now where did you read that, man
You've got such sharp teeth, man
Everybody's thinking it
But no one wants to say it
Everybody's got it coming whether or not they want to Change your face before we get to

I don't know where it is I'm gonna go
Is it heaven
If it is, come get me now
Leave it where you are
We are out here if you are
We are taking bricks with God and smashing our own cars

Now where did you find us
Do you think it's ridiculous
That we keep talking and you keep laughing
When everything's got a time
Everyone too

Now where did you see that
Do you really believe that
What did you see there
Can you tell me 'bout that
Someone's gotta change
Be a face or be a name

Change your face or change your name
Change your face or change your name
Change your face or change your name
Change your face or change your name
Change your face or change your name
