Everything is just the same,
Wrench it out from her landscapes.
For all we know it's just a game.
If love is blind where is your illness.
For all we know we're all ashamed,
And inside each is a weakness,
For darkness doesn't know the game.
Darkness knows I have a weakness.

All of my friends,
They catch me when I'm dumb,
And I keep acting so stupid,
Just sucking on my thumb.
If you keep playing so accounted,
I won't know when anything changed.
If you keep saying we're useless,
Well we'll just fulfill your game.
Oh.

Everything is just the same.
Kill the lights and be silent,
For all we know it's just a stain.
If love is blind where is your harness,
For all we know it's just a game,
If love is seen where is your illness.

All of my friends,
They know me when I'm wrong.
I don't know why,
I can't say why,
I just feel that way sometimes.
And if you know that,
You can say that,
I have no problem being shunned.
Most of the times we are wrong and,
We think we are the righteous ones,
Oh.

Everything is just the same.
